

A vibrant democracy requires a full airing of all points of view. Increasingly, this is not the case. With few exceptions, the mass media now present to the American people the perspective of the wealthy and powerful, while largely ignoring the needs of the middle class, working families and the poor.

I am against further deregulation of the media and hope you will do everything possible to reverse this dangerous trend that is undermining our democracy.

Thank you.